

I love my xm radio, where i live we have 1 radio station and even that is not working every day. I pay for this service and I love the variety of channels it delivers. The reception is wonderful and is realiable, unlike the local stations.

Do not take this service away, I travel frequently and listen to local weather stations and travel information. Please do not dictate to me what I can hear and not hear!!